1.0. INTRODUCTION

When the University was established in 1962 with the motto “For Learning and Culture”, an Institute of African Studies was put in place to actualize the culture aspect of the motto. The Institute was expanded in 1966 and divisions, which included Art and Art History as well as Archaeology and Museum, were carved out. The Institute’s staff conducted in-depth research into various aspects of African Culture such as Art, Music, Drama, African Languages and Literatures. In addition, the Research Fellows in Art and Art history were by 1968/69 session, offering service courses to students in the Faculty of Education and later in the Faculty of Arts. The first set of B.A. (Fine Arts/Education) students graduated in 1974 while the first set of B.A. (Hons) Fine Arts students graduated in 1976, a year after the establishment of a full-fledged Fine Arts Department.

A turning point came in 1989 when, by virtue of the National Universities Commission Approved Minimum Standards in Environmental Sciences for all Nigerian Universities, the Department of Fine Arts was moved from the Faculty of Arts to the Faculty of Environmental Design and Management. Slight modifications were made to the degree programme brought over from the parent Faculty. A new programme, which represents a major restructuring in order to bring the Department in line with the Faculty structure and modern developments in the Visual Arts, is now presented.

The Department encourages its best products to make a career in teaching. This policy has yielded positive results over the years. At present, over ninety percent of its current members of the academic staff are trained within, up to Ph.D. Level; while few are currently on their Ph.D. programmes as well.

The students/staff relationship is regulated by the appropriate University rules and regulations. This, notwithstanding, students' welfare is rules and regulations. This, notwithstanding, students' welfare is addressed through various Departmental sub-committees and units. The Part Advisers attend to students' academic and administrative concerns. At the beginning of the semester, it is the responsibility of advisers to guide the students on the minimum workload, relevant, compulsory and outstanding courses. The advisers are also expected to monitor the academic progress of their students and offer necessary guide. At present, students write their mobile phone numbers on their files in the Department for easy communication and fast dissemination of urgent information.

1.2.1 History of the University

A brief history of the University and the Faculty of Environmental Design and Management as contained in Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife Nigeria Calendar, 2004 – 2006 and Faculty of Environmental Design and Management handbook respectively with the history of the Department of Fine and Applied Arts is given below. Obafemi Awolowo University (formerly, University of Ife), Ile-Ife is one of the three Universities established in Nigeria between 1961 and 1962 as a result of the report submitted to the Federal Government in September, 1960, by a Commission it appointed in April 1959 under the Chairmanship of Sir Eric Ashby, Master of Clare College, Cambridge, to survey the needs of postsecondary and higher education in Nigeria over the next twenty years.

The Government of Western Nigeria first announced in 1960 it's intention to establish as soon as possible a University in Western Nigeria which would be of the highest standard. Its policy would be to open its doors to students from all parts of the Federation and of the World.

The planning of the Obafemi Awolowo University was entrusted to two Committees. The first being a University Planning Committee comprising persons qualified to advice on the planning of a new University, and who in effect undertook the preparatory work connected with the establishment of the University pending the setting up of the Provisional Council of the University. The second committee was the University Parliamentary Committee, which was advisory to the Minister of Education. On 8th June, 1961 the Law providing for the establishment of the Provisional Council of the university was formally inaugurated under the Chairmanship of Chief Rotimi Williams.

On 11th June, 1970, an Edict known as the University of Ife Edict, 1970 was promulgated by the Government of the Western State to replace the Provisional Council Law of 8th June, 1961. This Edict has since been amended by the Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife (Amended) No. 11 of 1975 (Transitional Provisions) Decree No. 23 of 1975. The new Decree effected a takeover of the Obafemi Awolowo University by the Federal Military Government and established a Provisional Council interim governing body of the University which shall subject to the general direction of the Head of the Federal Government, control policies and finances of the University and manage its affairs. Governing Council has since replaced this Provisional Council.

The site selected for the University was at Ile-Ife, a town about 80 kilometres northeast of Ibadan in Oyo State (part of the old Western State). Ife is famous as the centre of an ancient civilization and home the Museum, which contains the renowned Ife heads. It was intended temporary buildings should be put up on the site to enable teaching to commence in October 1962 while the permanent buildings were being planned and erected. But when the Federal Government transferred Ibadan Branch of the Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology to the University, it was decided that it would be unnecessary to put up temporary buildings at Ife and the University was temporarily located on the site of Ibadan Branch of the Nigerian College. Teaching began in October 1962 with an initial enrolment of 244 students. The teaching, administrative and technical staff, either transferred from the Nigerian College or newly recruited from abroad numbered about eighty.

The University started with five Faculties - Agriculture, Arts, Economics and Social Studies (now Social Sciences), Law and Science. Six new faculties have since been added, namely the Faculty of Education (established on 1st October, 1967), the Faculty of Pharmacy (established on 1st October, 1969), the Faculties of Technology and Health Sciences (now College of Health Sciences) (both established on 1st October, 1970) Faculty of Administration (which replaces the former Institute of Administration with effect from 1st October 1979) and Faculty of Environmental Design and Management (established on April 6, 1982).
In 1992, the University established a collegiate system with five Colleges. The system did not function effectively and was abandoned after two years. However, the Postgraduate College and the College of Health Sciences were retained. The College of Health Sciences now comprises of the Faculties of Basic Medical Sciences, Clinical Sciences and Dentistry. The Adeyemi College of Education located in Ondo and the Institute of Agricultural Research and Training in Ibadan were initially integral part of the University. Although the Adeyemi College was separated from the University in 1975, however, there is still a close relationship between the two institutions. The College offers degree programme of the University under a system that is closely monitored by the University. The Institute of Agricultural Research and Training, Ibadan with a branch at Akure in Ondo State, used to be fully superintended by the University in 1991. However, the Akure branch and the College of Animal Science of the Institute continued to report to the Federal Government through the Director of the institute. In terms of funding, the Institute of Agricultural Research and Training now relates to the Federal Ministry of Agriculture while the University still has administrative responsibility for the Research and Administrative staff of the Institution. The Director and the Secretary of the institute are responsible to the University through the Vice-Chancellor and Registrar respectively. The Vice-Chancellor is the Chairman of the Institute's Governing Board.

The following are Institutes and major units exist in the University: The Natural History Museum
The Institute of Ecology and Environmental Studies
The Centre for Gender and Social Policy Studies
The Centre for Industrial Research and Development
The Institute of Public Health
The Institute of Cultural Studies
The Physical Planning and Development Unit
The Computer Centre
The Drug Research and Production Unit
The Equipment Maintenance and Development Centre
The Central Technological Laboratory Workshop
The Central Science Laboratory
The Centre for Distance Learning
Finally, some other agencies over which the University has no direct, or, in some cases limited control, have premises within the University. These include
The Regional Centre for Training in Aerospace Surveys
The National Centre for Technology Management
The Centre for Energy Research and Development
The African Regional Centre for Space Science and Education in English. The student population rose steadily from 244 in 1962/63 to over 30,000 at the end of the 2013/2014.

1.2.2 Mission, Vision and Objectives of the University

MISSION
To create a teaching and learning community for imparting appropriate skills and knowledge, behaviour and attitude; advance frontiers of knowledge that is relevant to national and global development; engender a sense of selfless public service; promote and nurture the African culture and tradition.

VISION
The vision is of a top rated University in Africa, ranked among best in the world, whose products occupy leadership position the public and private sectors of the Nigerian and global economy, that has harnessed modern technology, social, economic financial strategies, built strong partnerships and linkages within and outside Nigeria and whose research contributes a substantial proportion of innovations to the Nigerian economy.

Objectives of the University
1. To produce graduates of international standard, with appropriate knowledge and skills in their field of study, who will be highly employable and able to employ themselves.
2. To provide high quality research and development activities that will promote the development of the Nation and enhance the image of the University and the researchers.
3. To harness modern technology especially ICT and modern social, economic and financial strategies to run a cost of efficient and effective academic programme and institutional management.
4. To provide services that have relevance to and impact on the local community and the Nation.
5. To provide conditions of study, work and living in the University Community that is of appropriate standard.
6. To expand access to tertiary education in the face of unmet demand.
7. To operate as an equal opportunity educational institution, sensitive to the principle of gender equity and non-discriminatory on the basis of race, ethnicity, religion or physical disability.
1.2.3  History of the Faculty of Environmental Design and Management
The history of the Faculty dated as far back as 1970 with the establishment of the Department of Estate Management in the Faculty of Technology. The Department of Estate Management was expanded in October 1971 to include academic programmes and specializations in Architecture Building, Quantity Surveying and Urban & Regional Planning. These five Departments metamorphosed in 1982 into a Faculty of Environmental Design and Management. The Department of Fine Arts was added in 1990.

The Faculty is also at the forefront in research and has viable postgraduate programmes in all fields of the Environmental Design and Management. This is because all the offices are connected to the internet for access to learning materials. Other sister universities in the country look unto us for the postgraduate training of their academic staff.

The Faculty, through its postgraduate programmes, has produced high level manpower not only for the Faculty but for the needs of many Universities and other establishments in Nigeria and worldwide. The products of this Faculty are also in the managerial positions in the private and public organizations not only nationally but also internationally. As a matter of fact, they are in the forefront of the construction industry, charting the road for others to follow.

We are in the process of reviewing our academic programmes paying particular attention to the needs of employers and also to the development of entrepreneurship knowledge and skills. New courses are being designed and introduced. We are keen to collaborate with similar institutions, corporate bodies in Nigeria and those in the Diaspora.

Presently, the active alumni of the Faculty are from all the Departments in the Faculty especially Department of Quantity Surveying and they have contributed in no small measure to the growth and development of the Faculty and the Departments. It is hoped that other alumni of the faculty will join hands with the active ones to assist the Faculty to sustain our lead position among Nigerian Universities and rank among the best in the world.

1.2.4  The History of the Department of Fine and Applied Arts
The B.A. Fine Arts programme was introduced in 1973 with its set of first students admitted in 1973/1974 academic session. It however became a full-fledged Department in 1975 under the Faculty of Arts. The Department have since graduated scores of artists, some of who went into full-time studio practice, while some preferred to be in academics, some others went into Advertising Agencies, and a few who chose to work in areas not relating to Art.

Although individual artists have been organizing and or participating in several group or solo exhibitions, the Department’s first major outing was in 1984 exhibition organized by the National Council of Arts and Culture, Lagos for all Art Schools in Higher Institutions in Nigeria. The emergence of Ona movement in 1989 marked another turning point in the history of the Ife art graduates. It was started by Kunle Filani, Tola Wewe, Moyo Òkédijí, Bolaji Campbell and Babatunde Nasiru who share a common belief in Yoruba culture and philosophies.

Ona is a radical movement whose members are concerned with the issues of artistic excellence, the adaptation and interpretation of traditional materials and methods, forms and styles to achieve a synthesis of purpose that promises to inculcate the aesthetic pinnacle of contemporary Yoruba art and design. Members of the movement have constantly exhibited and made a very positive impact both at home and abroad. They have not only served as a rallying point and good example to others, the movement and its members has also placed the name Ife Art School into the history of art.

The year 1993 witnessed the coming together of the Fine Arts graduates of Obafemi Awolowo University; the Ile-Ife tagged “Best of Ife” and pioneered by Kunle Filani. Since then, they have been having wonderful annual exhibitions. The year 2003 was celebrated as the group’s 10th year of consistent and successful outings. Dr. Paul Chika Dike, the Director General of the National Gallery of Art, Abuja, once remarked that the quality of works displayed by the “Best of Ife” have compared favourably with any other works anywhere in the world. It is also noteworthy that several graduates of this Department have developed individual styles and techniques in art production. An example is Moyo Okediji and Bolaji Campbell have both embraced earth colour palettes with a bid to derive indigenous colour. Victor Ekpuk is renowned in the U.S.A. for the use of Nsibidi motifs; Mufu Onifade’s Araism is equally a recognized style at home and abroad. Others like John Amifor, Idowu Otun and Wale Lagunju have also experimented and worked on other intriguing styles and materials. With all these, one would agree with Dr. Paul Chike Dike that the Ife School of Art has led in the area of art propagation and presentation.

The Department has trained hundreds of Nigerians who are occupying top positions and the art hemisphere both in private practice, Government and academic all over the world. The Department has also made tremendous contributions especially in the field of art in Nigeria with the brilliant performance of our graduates within and outside the country. With the current crop of lecturers, the Department commenced the Ph.D. programme in 2011/2012 academic session and has produced the first Ph.D. graduate in 2015. This increased to four the number of Ph.D. graduates in 2016, while many others are at various stages of completion.

The Department is looking for brilliant young men and women who have the ability and zeal to go through training in a wide range of skills in all art endeavours to form the vanguard of the next generation of Artists both in private and public service and the academia of the future.

A candidate shall be recorded as having attained in a Course a level of achievement graded as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Excellent</td>
<td>70%-100%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Very Good</td>
<td>60%-69%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>Good</td>
<td>50%-59%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>Satisfactory</td>
<td>45%-49%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E</td>
<td>Adequate</td>
<td>40%-44%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>Failure</td>
<td>0%-39%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1.5.3 Calculation of Grade Point Average (GPA)

The overall performance of each candidate during an entire semester shall be determined by means of a weighted grade point average, obtained by awarding credit points in respect of each course multiplied by the numerical value of the grade obtained as follows:

\begin{align*}
A & = 5 \text{ credit point per unit} \\
B & = 4 \text{ credit point per unit} \\
C & = 3 \text{ credit point per unit} \\
D & = 2 \text{ credit point per unit} \\
E & = 1 \text{ credit point per unit} \\
F & = 0 \text{ credit point per unit}
\end{align*}

The grade point average is the total number of credit points divided by the total number of units for all courses taken during a particular semester.

1.5.4 Definition of Terms

(a) Student Workload: This is defined in terms of course units. One unit represents one hour of lecture or one hour of Tutorial or 2-4 hours of practical work per week throughout a semester. Thus for example, courses with 2 hours of lectures and 1 hour of Tutorial per week is a 3 units course.

(b) Total Number of Units (TNU): This is the total number of course units carried by a student in a particular semester is the summation of the load Units on all courses carried during the semester. For example, a student carrying 6 courses of 3 units each has a TNU of 18 for semester. No student shall be allowed to carry (i.e. register for) or be examined (in more than 24 units in any part I semester.

(c) Cumulative Number of Units (CNU): This is summation of total number of units over all the semester from the beginning to date. A student who is prone to repeating courses will finish (if he does not drop out) with higher CNU than his non-repeating colleague and most likely require a longer time to complete requirement for the award of Degrees.

(d) Level of Performance Rating: This is the rating of grades obtained in terms of credit points per load unit. The rating used is as follows: Level of Performance Rating (Credit Points per Unit)

\begin{align*}
A & = 70\% - 100\% \quad - \quad 5 \\
B & = 60\% - 69\% \quad - \quad 4 \\
C & = 50\% - 59\% \quad - \quad 3 \\
D & = 45\% - 49\% \quad - \quad 2 \\
E & = 40\% - 44\% \quad - \quad 1 \\
F & = 0\% - 39\% \quad - \quad 0
\end{align*}
Base on the above, a student who obtained a grade of “A” in a 4 – unit course has scored 20 credit points.

(e) Total Credit Points (TCP): This is the sum of the products of the course units and rating in the entire semester period. For example, consider a student who took 4 courses of 5 units each. Let's say the grade obtained in the four courses were C.B.F.D, respectively. The TCP of this student is obtained as $5 \times 3 + 5 \times 4 + 5 \times 2 = 45$.

(f) Cumulative Credit Point (GPA): This is the summation of Total Credit Points over all semester from beginning to date.

(g) Grade Point Average (GPA): This is the total credit points (TCP) divided by the total units (TNU). For example, consider the student's scores referred to above. His TCP is 45, and of course, his TNU is 20 (i.e. 4 courses at 5 units each, for the semester). The highest GPA that can be earned is 5.0 “A” in every course during the semester. The lowest GPA obtainable is 0.0 and this would happen if the student has “F” all round during the semester.

(h) Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA): This is the summation of TCPs for all semester, divided by the summation of TNU's for the said semester. Like the GPA, CGPA obtainable ranges from 0 – 5.

1.6 MISCELLANEOUS NOTES ON THE COURSE UNIT SYSTEM

i. Withdrawal from the University: A student whose CGPA falls below 1.0 at the end of a semester shall be placed on probation during the following semester, if he/she fails to achieve a CGPA of at least 1.0 at the end of that semester, he/she shall be required to withdraw from the University.

ii. Final Assessment and Class of Degree: A student who has satisfactorily completed all requirements for the degree with CGPA of not less than 1.50 may be awarded an Honours degree as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>CGPA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>First Class</td>
<td>4.50 and above</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second Class (Upper Division)</td>
<td>3.50 - 4.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second Class (Lower Division)</td>
<td>2.40 - 3.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Third Class</td>
<td>1.50 - 2.39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pass</td>
<td>1.00 - 1.49</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
(iv) Passes in 12 Units of Special Electives is a requirement for graduation.

(iv) A candidate who does not reach a CGPA of 1.50 but whose CGPA is not less than 1.00 at the end of the programme is awarded a pass degree (i.e. without Honours). *CGPA calculation is on all courses, but excluding Special Electives.

1.7 TRANSFERS WITHIN THE UNIVERSITY AND LENGTH OF STAY IN THE UNIVERSITY

(a) To qualify for a degree, a candidate will normally be required to spend a minimum of two academic years at the Obafemi Awolowo University.

(b) If a student transfers from one Faculty to another, the transfer would be treated as if he/she is just being admitted into the University since as part of the requirement for graduation the student has to take all the foundation/compulsory courses in the new Faculty/Department. In that case his/her stay in the new Faculty/Department should be 1½ times the number of semesters required to complete a programme.

(c) Where a student transfers from a science based Faculty to another, the computation of is result in the new Faculty shall take cognizance of his previous CGPA in the new Department. The duration of they stay in the university will be what remains of the 1½ times the number of semesters required to complete the programme as approved by Senate.

(d) Where a student is transferring from a science-based to a Humanities/Arts-based Faculty or vice-versa, the transfer should be treated as if the student is just being admitted into the University. The GPA of the student will not be transferred to the new Department. He/She will however be required to take all the foundation/compulsory courses in the new Department.
