

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR NIGERIA (EON)

460 SW, 34th street, #141442, Gainesville, Florida, 32614, USA

Announcement of Essay Competition

Educational Opportunities for Nigeria (EON) is a US-based non-profit making organisation interested in awarding scholarships to deserving Nigerian students. This year's Scholarship Programme will be awarded based on an Essay Writing Competition for the undergraduate students of Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife.

We are seeking original essays of 1,500 words (3 – 4 pages) on the title:

The Impact of Chief Awolowo Education Policy in Western Region

Submissions should be sent to onescholarship2023@gmail.com on or before June 30, 2023. After submission, 10 best essays will be selected for presentation to a panel of distinguished judges and a live audience of faculty, staff and students on July 25, 2023. After this, 3 best essays will be determined and announced. A public announcement and presentation of prizes to the winners will be organised at the Obafemi Awolowo University campus on August 1, 2023.

Scholarship Value

1st Position	₦500,000:00
2nd Position	₦300,000:00
3rd Position	₦200,000:00

Terms

- Essays should be original - any act of plagiarism will be penalised.
- Submission of the essay should be accompanied with a declaration that you are the author.
- Participants are free to base their essays on either primary or secondary sources.

Format

- Essays should not be more than 1,500 words (3 - 4 pages), single spaced, Times New Roman, 12-point font.
- Writers should indicate their name, email, mobile number, department and faculty.
- All submitted essays must be in English.

Adjudication

The submissions will be judged by the Steering Committee of EON in the University, comprising distinguished members of the academic community and the Committee's decision will be final.